Procedure and Criteria for Reinstatement of Accreditation After Resigning Membership of COSRT (16.11.15)

If a Member reapplies within two years of resignation, Accreditation will be reinstated immediately upon receiving the following documents:

- A completed Membership application form M2.
- The required supporting evidence for M2.
  (Please note only a current supervisors report will be needed for this application).
- Annual fee for Accredited Membership.

The member will be audited after 12 months.

If more than two years have elapsed since resignation, Accreditation will be reinstated immediately upon receiving the following documents:

- A completed Membership application form (M2).
- The required supporting evidence for M2 with three references.
- Annual fee for Accredited Membership.

The Member will be audited after 12 months and will have to submit a logbook (M14) of their work for the 12 months as part of this process.

In the audit the Members must:

- have completed a minimum of 100 hours of practice;
- have received monthly supervision for the year's work, this will be confirmed by the supervisor;
- have completed 30 hours of CPD during the year of which 16 should be sexual/relationship related.

If more than three years have elapsed since Accreditation, you will need to join as a General Member for a year and then complete the Accreditation process.
